

ATTENTION ALL GEOGRAPHY AND SOSE TEACHERS

GEOGRAPHY – RESOURCEFUL GEOGRAPHY
Thursday May 14 and Friday May 15 (Term 2, Week 3)

Location: Education Centre –Milner St, Hindmarsh

Looking at resource use and its impact in South Australia and providing resources in the form of ideas and materials for the teaching of Geography.

◇ Keynote Speakers:

- ✓ Professor Graeme Hugo, Adelaide University on “Water and Population in SA”
- ✓ Professor Andrew Beer, Flinders University on “SA’s Mining Boom –Reshaping the State’s Geography”

◇ Panel Presentation: The development of a National Geography Curriculum

◇ Workshops will include:

- ✓ Development Geography
- ✓ Stage 2 Fieldwork and Inquiry
- ✓ Extreme weather events
- ✓ GIS (Including GIS for primary and middle years) and ICT
- ✓ Impact of human development on coasts

◇ Fieldwork and Excursions on Friday afternoon

◇ Thursday after school: Session specifically for Primary teachers

◇ Displays from commercial publishers and government departments.

◇ Conference Costs:

Members:	Full conference	$ 130	Non members:	Full conference	$210
	One day only	$ 75		One day only	$115
			Tertiary students:	$20 per day

◇ Put these dates in your diary and look out on the GTASA website at <http://gtasa.asn.au> for the registration form later this term

◇ Valuable resources will be available at special conference prices

◇ Plus the usual conference benefits: catching up with colleagues, being re-enthused, and viewing resource

Major sponsor

ESRI Australia

Putting knowledge into place®

Conference convenor : Christopher Senior: cseior@optusnet.com.au.

GTASA CONFERENCE